++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with sunny spells.

Today:
It will be a dry and bright day with plenty of sunshine. After a chilly start it will feel rather warm in the afternoon, although cooler around some coasts. Winds mostly light, but freshening over the Western Isles.

Tonight:
Any cloud will fade away this evening, often clear with a widespread frost developing overnight. A few fog patches possible by dawn. Breezy and less cold around the west coast.

Friday:
Dry and bright with good sunny spells. Feeling warm in any afternoon sunshine, although cooler around some coasts where it will be breezy.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Staying mostly dry with sunny spells on Saturday. Cloudier on Sunday and Monday with some rain in the west and northwest. Warm in the south and east.
